DAY 3: Santiago

This morning, join the curator of the Pre-Columbian Art Museum for a tour. With over 700 exhibits, the museum hosts Chile's most important collection of pre-Hispanic artwork. Later, pay a visit to some of Chile's renowned wineries, including Almaviva and Haras de Pirque Vineyard, and sample their premium wines. Dine this evening at one of A&K's recommended restaurants along Borderio Boulevard. Hotel Ritz-Carlton B L D

DAY 4: Santiago/Puerto Montt/Puerto Varas

Fly to Puerto Montt for views of majestic volcanoes in the heart of Chile's southlands and wander through its colorful handicraft market. Visit Frutillar, a small village with a strong Alpine style. Stop by Lavanda Casa de Té, a tea room that is surrounded by lavender fields. Savor the different aromas and flavors of the region as you taste exclusive teas, as well as the best cakes and pies in the area. Later this afternoon, transfer to your hotel for an evening at leisure. Hotel Meliá Patagonia B L

DAY 5: Lake District/Bariloche, Argentina

Cross the Andes and drive along the shores of Lake Llanquihue, visiting several villages along the way. After stopping for lunch at a local restaurant, continue to Argentina. Drive to Villa La Angostura on the shores of Lake Nahuel Huapi, where you board a private boat for a cruise to Puerto Tunquelen. Arrive in picturesque Bariloche this evening and check in to your resort hotel.
